The Emmanuel Community is a Catholic Lay International Community that brings together faithful that share a common call to strive for holiness and commit themselves to actively live their faith in their daily lives through adoration, compassion and evangelization; thus, fulfilling their call as the first believers did who had "only one heart and one soul!" (Acts 4:32). It is present in over 70 countries on all continents.

"God's love is the very source and foundation of family life" St John Paul II
